Working with Peter Kingston

“The whole day was an ‘aha’ moment! I really enjoyed prepare like an actor and the framing techniques. They really stood out. It has given me the tools to enhance my ‘presence’ in meetings and when presenting. It will also give me more confidence. I liked that it was a small group: we could learn off each other and provide feedback in a safe environment.”

“Peter is an excellent facilitator with great energy. He has a great ability to simplify the complex, and to understand business issues to convey them in a simpler, easier way to understand.”

“I was so motivated. You really give me skills to take away and apply to my working and personal life.”
